

Alpena Public School District has worked with Allband for 2 years to benefit the education and the rural community in Northern Michigan.

K-12 education and libraries in three counties will benefit through the collaboration with Allband.

Allband had made plans to provide its services to other unserved areas in Michigan and will provide the same quality services in those areas.